UNESCO has designated [Yatai Float Festival in Takayama] as World Heritage.

On the 1st of December, Yatai Float Festival in Takayama has officially been designated as UNESCO World Heritage (Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity)

According to the Agency of Cultural Affairs, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) had a committee meeting in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia and decided to officially designate Yama, Hoko, Yatai, Float Festivals in Japan (33 festivals including the Takayama's Yatai Float Festival) as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Upon this designation by UNESCO, Mayor Michihiro Kunishima has made a statement with joy and a new commitment for the future. Mayor Kunishima says "I am very happy that the Takayama' s Yatai Float Festival had been designated as World Heritage in this special year of the 80th Anniversary of incorporation as a city. Takayama Festival is a symbol of traditional culture in Takayama, and it is also an important tourism resource. Now I am committed to inherit and promote this precious heritage, with supports from the residents, for the next generation."

Besides Yama, Hoko, Yatai float festival, twenty two (22) Japanese heritages including [Nohgaku Theatre] [Kabuki Theatre] [Gagaku] [Washoku, Traditional Dietary Cultures of the Japanese | [Washi, Japanese Paper] are listed as the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Now, Takayama Festival has been recognized as a heritages of the world.
